They key services we provide at Go East are:

Sourcing Logistics Financing Design & Prototyping

While sourcing products from overseas suppliers is now standard practice at most large U.S. corporations, for many other companies, inexperience in this area leads to problems, mistakes and frustration with the outsourcing process. Our experience providing custom fulfillment solutions means you have more time to focus on marketing your business. Let our experts guide you through the process and help find your best solution.

We act as your sourcing agent, supervising all aspects of ordering, manufacturing, quality checking and shipping, or we assist your staff throughout these processes. Our goal is to make our customers more competitive in their respective markets by providing a new, lower cost option for promotional products.

With on-site, secure warehousing Go East Promotions can accommodate your growing business needs. We will store your products easily and securely, and guarantee to have it readily available when you need it.

With Go East Promotion's first-rate fulfillment services, we help you eliminate the complex and expensive process of outsourcing to multiple suppliers. Our GLOBAL fulfillment capabilities include custom program design and outsourcing with an attention to detail that only comes from years of experience. Go East has the highest quality, lowest cost producers in the world.
